Florida Association of Counties Appoints Commissioner Cox to Serve as Trustee

Contacts: Eric Keaton, Public Communications Manager (727) 847-8129
Current as of: April 28, 2008

NEW PORT RICHEY — The Florida Association of Counties (FAC) has appointed District 4 County Commissioner Michael Cox to serve on the Florida Local Government Investment Trust (FLGIT).

As a FLGIT Trustee, Commissioner Cox will be responsible for the oversight of a highly successful local government investment program.

“I’m honored for the appointment and this will allow me to share my financial planning experience as a member of the FLGIT team,” stated Commissioner Cox. Commissioner Cox is a graduate of the Pinellas Vocational Technical Institute and University of South Florida’s Certified Financial Planning Program. He is a Certified Financial Planner™.

The FAC also states the appointment will assist Commissioner Cox in promoting the success of FLGIT to other counties and in his development as an elected official via the many educational opportunities offered by FAC.
