Pasco County Supervisor of Elections Unveils Optical Scan Demonstration on Website

Dade City, FL – The Pasco County Supervisor of Elections, Brian E. Corley, announced a demonstration video of the new optical scan voting equipment is now available on-line at www.pascovotes.com by selecting the voting system link on the homepage.

As part of the county-wide education plan, the website is equipped with a Frequently Asked Questions section, a demonstration video, a schedule of demonstrations throughout the county, and a link for clubs, organizations, and churches to schedule demonstrations for their meetings and events. Supervisor Corley or staff is available to speak to groups and bring the equipment for hands-on demonstrations. Demonstrations can be scheduled by telephoning Tracy at 1-800-851-8754.

Scheduled demonstrations and the website are just part of a comprehensive education plan being launched in Pasco County by the Supervisor of Elections' office. Additionally, appearances and demonstrations have been scheduled at community events throughout the summer. There are plans for educational inserts and flyers in publications, and new voter information cards for all registered voters. The demonstration video will be airing on Pasco Television Bright House channel 622 or Verizon channel 42, and Pasco Educational Television, Bright House channel 614 (digital only) or Verizon channel 40.
